Cycling in the Countryside...

In the heart of the countryside, the association of villages of Castelbriantaise has converted an old railway line into a trail laid out especially for cycling, roller-skating and walking. The perfect place to relax and get away from it all, far from the busy traffic routes.

Country landscapes, with forests, pools, fields, meadows and typical villages unfurl along your way, as you follow the easy, almost flat, route which is ideal for all ages.

Just take a short cycle ride and discover the peace of the countryside.
